
Intense Technologies lists on the National Stock Exchange (NSE)

- Trading commences under INTENTECH ticker from Today
- To trade with Face Value Rs. 2 and Market Lot size of 1

Hyderabad – March 23, 2017:

India headquartered enterprise software products company Intense Technologies, with leadership presence in South Asia telecom and emerging presence across the U.S, LATAM, EMEA and APAC geographies listed today on the country's premier exchange i.e. NSE, post the requisite approvals from SEBI & Stock Exchange.

The shares will be open for trading with ISIN number INE781A01025 and symbol, INTENTECH. The securities will be offered under the EQ-Rolling Settlement series with a Market Lot size of 1. With this listing, Intense will now trade on 2 of India's leading stock exchanges for equities and give investors an enhanced mechanism to benefit from the growth of the business.

On the occasion, Mr. Shastri, MD, Intense Technologies Ltd. said,

"The listing on NSE is a moment of great pride for team Intense, as it enhances the platform available for trading in our stock. The larger community of investors will stand to benefit given the stock exchange's stature, reach and ease of conducting transactions. As management, we remain committed to driving a growth business on the basis of Uniserve platform and services around it, foray into verticals outside telecom and new client engagements. We process USD 25 billion worth client revenue data, while on-boarding 2.5 million customers daily, which given the momentum we have generated within the universe of Fortune 500 enterprises, is set to further expand."

Intense Technologies' business perspective remains healthy, driven by solid business fundamentals. The Company continues to focus on its strategy of penetrating into newer markets, strengthening existing business relationships and driving innovative processes to address the ever-evolving standards through its award-winning next-generation platform UniServe.
